NOTICE OF EXTRAORDINARY GENERAL MEETING OF THE COMPANY

Notice is hereby given that the Extraordinary General Meeting of the Company’s shareholders will be held at 08:00 (London time) / 10:00 (Tel Aviv time) on Monday, December 9, 2019 at the Company’s Registered Office, for the following purpose:

(1) To approve the Purchase of additional coverage of D&O insurance.

The Board recommends a vote FOR with respect to the resolution listed above.

Dated: November 4, 2019

By order of the Board
EXPLANATION OF RESOLUTION

RESOLUTION 1 – TO APPROVE THE PURCHASE OF ADDITIONAL COVERAGE OF D&O INSURANCE

Until September 6, 2019 the Company had in place an insurance policy with a coverage in the maximum amount of US $ 50 Million (per event and per year) and the annual premium paid was equal to approx. $74,000 ("The Existing Policy").

On August 29, 2019 the general meeting approved the terms of the Existing Policy and its extension or the purchase of a new policy, according to the terms specified in the Company's Remuneration Policy that was approved by the general meeting on the same day.

According to the Company's Remuneration Policy the Company may procure D&O liability insurance policies (including Run-off insurance) covering the liability of its Directors and Senior Executives who serve from time to time (including Directors or Senior Executives who are deemed controlling shareholders of the Company or who are associated with a controlling shareholder(s) of the Company), provided that (i) the purchase of such D&O Insurance is on market terms and does not have material adverse effect on the Company's assets liabilities or profitability, and (ii) such purchase has been approved by the Remuneration Committee. It is also stated in the Company's Remuneration Policy, that the Company intends to procure such D&O Insurance with liability limits not exceeding $50,000,000 per insured event and the annual premium is not to exceed US $100,000 plus 15% per year as of July 7, 2019; and that the run-off policy shall be for a period of up to 7 years, with a coverage amount that shall not exceed the coverage limitations of the D&O Insurance, and the premium shall not exceed 3 times the annual premium of the D&O Insurance in effect at the year of purchase.

The Company and the insurer of the Existing Policy encountered difficulties to reach an understanding about the extension of the Existing Policy according to its terms. The Existing Insurer agreed to extend the Existing Policy provided, inter alia, that the Company will pay a much higher premium for a limited coverage (exclusion of coverage in case of insolvency).

In light of the above, the Company's insurance advisor proposed to change structure of the insurance coverage and to turn the Existing Policy into a run-off policy for a period of 7 years, on the same terms as the Existing Policy, and to purchase an additional D&O insurance policy with a reduced coverage from a different insurer.

Accordingly, on October 16 and October 17, 2019 the remuneration committee and the board of directors, respectively, approved: (1) the purchase of a new D&O insurance policy covering all future events from a new Insurer. The coverage is for $5M and the annual premium shall be equal to $80K (plus additional fronting fee of $12K) (the "New Policy"); (2) to invoke the run-off policy with the Former insurer of the Existing Policy with a coverage in the maximum amount of US $ 50 Million (per event and per year) and with a maximum one – time premium equal to $157.17K. The terms of the New Policy and the run-off policy were aligned with the terms of the Company's Remuneration Policy, as detailed above, and as such were approved by the remuneration committee and the board of directors.

In addition, on September 29, 2019 the Company received a proposal from an additional insurer for an additional layer of the D&O insurance. The coverage is for $5M and the annual premium shall be equal to $75K (plus additional fronting fee of $11.25K) (the "Additional Policy").
The annual premium that will be paid for the Additional Policy in addition to the annual premium that is paid for the New Policy (i.e. an annual premium of $178.25k), exceed the terms specified in Company's Remuneration Policy (i.e. an annual premium of $115k). Therefore, and according to the Israeli Company's Law– 1999 (the "Companies Law"), due to such deviation from the terms of Company's Remuneration Policy, the purchase of the Additional Policy is subject to the approval of the General Meeting, in addition to the approvals of the remuneration committee and the board of directors.

The board of directors and the remuneration committee approved and recommended the general meeting to approve the purchase of Additional Policy of the D&O insurance and the inclusion of the directors and senior executives, including the Company's CEO, who also serve as senior executives in shareholders that may be deemed as controlling shareholders under section 268 to the Israeli Companies law, who served or serve in the Company, or will serve in the Company from time to time, in the Additional Policy.

The board of directors and the remuneration committee were in the opinion that directors and officers insurance coverage is for the Company's benefit, since it enables the Company's directors and officers to act freely for the Company's benefit, subject to the limitations under the Companies Law. The insurance coverage may reduce the expected cost for the Company in the event that any of the indemnification letters granted to the directors and officers of the Company will be exercised, and therefore, the coverage is necessary to protect the Company's assets and to reduce its liability.

Furthermore, the proposed structure of the insurance coverage was given by the Company's insurance agent. The premiums are in market terms, and were determined by the insurer and in accordance with the professional advice given to the Company that, the premiums are reasonable under the circumstances and given the nature and size of the Company's activity and its current situation, taking into consideration the scope of the insurance coverage and the insurance period, and the insurance terms that reflect the accepted market terms in the insurance industry. Therefore, the board of directors and the remuneration committee are of the opinion that the engagement is at market terms and may not materially affect the Company's profitability, assets or liabilities.

Proposed Resolution

To approve the purchase of the Additional Policy, in accordance with the terms detailed above, for directors and office holders, including the CEO and directors and senior executives who also serve as senior executives in shareholders that may be deemed as controlling shareholders under section 268 to the Companies law, who served or serve in the Company, or as they will serve in the Company, from time to time.

3. Amendment of the Agenda
